

- 1 Jester Statue, Henley Street
Take a few moments to get into the Shakespearean spirit by reading the quotes inscribed along the base.
- 2 Shakespeare's Birthplace
Learn about Shakespeare and his influence on theatre and English culture.
- 3 The Gower Memorial, Bancroft Gardens
Come face-to-face with some of Shakespeare and some of his most unforgettable characters – Price Hal, Hamlet, Lady Macbeth and Falstaff.
- 4 Royal Shakespeare Theatre
Check out the free exhibitions, grab a snack in one of the restaurants, and take in the view from the observation tower. If you're very lucky, you can catch a performance of one of the Bard's plays at the Royal Shakespeare Theatre or Swan Theatre.
- 5 Holy Trinity Church
Visit Shakespeare's gravesite and admire the beauty of this medieval parish church.
- 6 Hall's Croft
Take in an exhibition on Jacobean luxury and learn about medicinal herbs once used by Dr. John Hall (Shakespeare's son-in-law).
- 7 Shakespeare's New Place
Stroll through the gardens where Shakespeare's former house once stood.

Shakespeare Birthplace Trust owns two additional properties outside of town: Anne Hathaway's Cottage, the childhood home of Shakespeare's wife, and Mary Arden's Farm, the childhood home of Shakespeare's mother.

Parking Tip

If you're traveling by car, park at the Stratford Park & Ride and take the bus into the town center (on Bridge Street). It costs just a few pounds and is much easier than driving around Stratford trying to find a parking space.
